The Sikhs and World War One

ORAL HISTORY RECORDING CLEARANCE FORM

Thank you for agreeing to share your stories and memories with the United Kingdom Punjab Heritage Association and the 'Empire, Faith & War' project.

The purpose of this agreement is to ensure that your recorded contribution is added in strict accordance with your wishes.

We would like to ask your permission to use your recording, and any photographs we have taken/you have given us in connection with your recording, in any of the following ways, now or in the future:

- As a lasting resource in an oral history archive.
- In exhibitions and displays in venues around the community.
- In leaflets and publications.
- On the World Wide Web.
- On television and radio.
- In learning materials, such as for use in the classroom and in examinations.
- In drama productions.
- As material in public lectures.

If you are happy for the material to be used in these ways, please show that you assign the copyright of the photographs and recordings to the United Kingdom Punjab Heritage Association and the 'Empire, Faith & War' project by signing below. We will acknowledge your consent with the following credit line:
